Subject:	Proposal for a Directive of the European Parliament and of the Council on procedural safeguards for children suspected or accused in criminal proceedings
	 Outcome of the first trilogue and the first technical meeting / preparation of the second trilogue

DOCUMENT PARTIALLY ACCESSIBLE TO THE PUBLIC (22.04.2015)

On Wednesday 4 March 2015, EP rapporteur Mrs. Chinnici hosted the first trilogue of the Council, the European Parliament and the European Commission on the draft Directive on procedural safeguards for children.

During the discussions Articles 1-9 were examined; the accompanying recitals, however, were not (yet) examined. At the end of the debate, it was agreed to refer Articles 2(1), 2(2), 3, 4, 5, 7 and 8 to the technical meeting, and to keep the remaining (more difficult) provisions at the level of the trilogue, at least for the time being.

On Tuesday 17 March 2015, the first technical meeting took place, at which Articles 2(1), 2(2), 3, 4, 5, 7 and 8 were discussed. As during the trilogue, the Presidency defended and explained the Council position as it had been agreed during the DROIPEN Working Party on 16 February 2015.

LIMITE DG D 2B

The Presidency generally retains a positive impression of the two meetings, which were held in a very pleasant atmosphere. This being said, the pace of the meetings is rather low; the European Parliament clearly wants to take the negotiations regarding this Directive more slowly than the negotiations regarding the procedural rights Directives that were adopted in the recent years. It may therefore take more time before concrete results can be reported.

The outcome of the meetings has been set out in the five column table in the Annex. All Presidency- and compromise suggestions are subject to confirmation by the Working Party. As usual, it has been clearly underlined that "nothing is agreed until everything is agreed".

This document also contains comments in respect of the amendments that have not yet been examined by the Working Party.

At the next trilogue, which will take place on 22 April 2015, Articles 10 to 25 will be examined, as well as any results from the first technical meeting. In that view, the Presidency would appreciate obtaining the following from the Member States at the meeting of the Friends of the Presidency on 9 April 2015:

- a) comments on the LIBE amendments relating to Articles 10 to 25 (with the exception of Articles 13, 14, 18a and 19a, which have already been discussed Member States who want to add anything to the observations as noted, however, are most welcome to do so);
- b) comments on the (very provisional) suggestions and observations as noted in this document relating to Articles 2(1), 2(2), 3, 4, 5, 7 and 8;
- c) comments on the LIBE amendments relating to Articles 6 (and 6a GA) and 9, which have not been discussed during the last Working Party.

		(6a) Given the case law of the Court of Justice of the European Union and the European Court of Human Rights, the criminal nature of proceedings cannot always be determined purely on the strength of their classification, and of the penalties which may be imposed, in national law. In order to achieve the aims of the Treaties and of this Directive and to ensure full respect for fundamental rights, including those set out in the Charter of Fundamental Rights and the ECHR, it is therefore appropriate, for the purposes of this Directive, to take into account not only the formal classification of proceedings in national law, but also their effects on

		(6b) Member States should ensure that in all proceedings, children are treated with care, sensitivity and respect for their age, special needs, maturity and level of understanding and take into consideration any communication difficulties they may have. Criminal proceedings involving children should be carried out in a non-intimidating and child-sensitive way. (AM 5)

Right to medical examination	Access to medical examination	Right to medical examination
1. In case of deprivation of liberty of a child, Member States shall ensure that the child has access to a medical examination with a view, in particular, to assessing the general mental and physical condition of the child with the aim to determine the capacity of the child to face questioning or other investigative or evidence gathering acts or any measures taken or envisaged against the child.	1. In case of deprivation of liberty of a child, Member States shall ensure that the child has access to a medical examination with a view, in particular, to assessing the general mental and physical condition of the child. ()	1. Where a child has been deprived of liberty, where the proceedings so require, or where it is in the best interests of the child, Member States shall ensure that the child has access without delay to a medical examination and medical care in order to evaluate, protect and, where necessary, improve the health and the well-being of the child. The medical examination shall be as non-invasive as possible and carried out by a qualified professional.

		1a. The results of that medical examination shall be taken into account when determining the capacity of the child to face questioning or other investigative or evidence gathering acts or any measures taken or envisaged against the child.
 2. The following persons shall have the right to ask for a medical examination: (a) the child, (b) the holder of the parental responsibility or the appropriate adult referred to in Article 5; (c) the child's lawyer. 	2. The medical examination shall be carried out either ex officio by the competent authorities, when specific health indications or the general mental or physical constitution of the child give reasons for such a medical examination, or following a request by any of the following persons: a) the child,	 (AM 48) 2. The following persons shall have the right to ask for a medical examination: (a) the child, (b) the holder of the parental responsibility or the appropriate adult referred to in Article 5; (c) the child's lawyer.

	b) a holder of parental responsibility or another appropriate adult referred to in Article 5; c) the child's lawyer. A request for a medical examination may be refused if it is obvious that such request has been made with the sole purpose of delaying the criminal proceedings. In the cases of (b) and (c), the request can also be rejected if the examination would go against the best interests of the child.
3. The conclusion of the medical examination shall be recorded in writing.		3. The conclusion of the medical examination shall be recorded in writing and all steps necessary to protect the physical and mental health of the child shall be taken without delay. (AM 49)
