8. In the first round, the candidate obtaining a two-thirds majority of the members of the College is deemed elected. If no candidate attains a two-thirds majority, a second round shall take place immediately between the two candidates who received the most votes in the first round. Where there is a tie among three or more candidates for the highest number of votes, all those candidates shall go to a second round. Where there is a tie among two or more candidates for the second highest number of votes, all those candidates and the candidate who received the highest number of votes shall go through to the second round.
